Prayer Before Communion - 1

O Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under the roof of my house, for I am sinful, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed. Say unto my soul, “Your sins are forgiven.” I am barren and in need of Your righteousness, Your compassion, Your mercy, and Your love. You humbled Yourself and descended heavens and unutterable glory to our lowly state and accepted to be born in a manger. Oh Holy Savior, do not reject my humble and miserable soul, which is waiting for your glorified coming, but accept to come into my soul to cleanse it. As you did not refuse to enter into the leper’s house to heal him, please, Oh Lord, enter into my soul and heal me. Do not forbid me from receiving your Holy Body and precious blood. As you did not forbid the woman, who was a sinner, from kissing your feet. May my communion with you banish every defilement and mortify my evil desires. Help me obey Your life-giving commandments, and heal my soul and body from all sins, that I may accept your gifts. May your grace dwell in me and may Your Spirit abide in me, and make me united with You, that I may live for the glory of Your Holy Name. Amen

Another Prayer Before Communion - by St. John Chrysostom

I believe, O Lord, and I confess that You are truly Christ, the Son of the Living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. And I believe that this is truly Your own immaculate Body and that that is truly Your own precious Blood. Therefore, I pray You, have mercy upon me and forgive my transgressions both voluntary and involuntary, of word and of deed, of knowledge and of ignorance. Make me worthy to partake without condemnation of your immaculate mysteries unto the remission of my sins and unto life everlasting. Amen.
