

Descriptions of the Martyrs of Libya

“He was quick to forgive, argued with no one, and was faithful and honorable.” (Magued)	“He gave alms even though he was poor.” (Sameh)
“He served his whole family.” (Hany)	“He carefully considered his words before opening his mouth.” (Milad)
“He was friendly and had a kind heart.” (Ezzat)	“He was discreet, respectful, and calm.” (Issam)
“He slept with the Bible on his chest. He prayed and strictly followed the fast.” (Malak)	“He was calm, obedient, and quick to confess.” (Youssef)
“His peaceful smile showed how close he was to God.” (Luka)	“He devoted a lot of time to helping the ‘Lord’s brothers’ — the poor.” (Bishoy)
“He was a man of prayer and liturgy.” (Girgis the Younger)	“He was a quiet man, even when criticized.” (Mina)
“He was an honest worker and treated his parents with respect.” (Kiryollos)	“His heart was pure and simple, his words humble.” (Gaber)
“He was compassionate and strove to help others.” (Girgis the Elder)	