

Verses

1	Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.
2	And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.
3	And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor , and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing.
4	Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up;
5	does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil;
6	does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth;
7	bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
8	Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away.
9	For we know in part and we prophesy in part.
10	But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away.
11	When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
12	For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.
13	And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Scenerios

1	I helped my friend with their science fair project, and when they won, I gave them all of the credit and was happy for them.
2	The teacher gave you an A on an exam when you actually got a C so you brought the error to their attention to make it right.
3	You tell someone they look pretty, but it does not come from love so it becomes meaningless.
4	Getting a college degree is important, but we don't know what the future holds for us. Only God knows.
5	I used to run around in church, but as I grew more respect and love for God I stopped and listened to what He was saying in His word.
6	You think that you must go to UCLA to get your education, but you don't end up getting accepted. You get accepted into Cal Poly Pomona instead. This ends up being the perfect fit for you and lands you your dream job upon graduation.
7	When I was going through a tough time the only things that kept me going was hope, faith, and love especially those whom I love.
8	Though I teach many on the Bible and understand thoroughly the church, I also judge and criticize those whom I serve.
9	Through the guidance of my father of confession, I can see my weaknesses and true self.
10	Grandma loves her children and grandchildren very much, but due to dementia she cannot remember their names.
11	When you feed the homeless just to gain community service hours, then you won't grow spiritually.
12	You are running against a classmate for ASB president, and when they win you congratulate them instead of being bitter.
13	You caught COVID-19 and had to be quarantined in your room for two weeks after you no longer showed any symptoms. While you were stuck in your room you believed that you would get well soon.

Match the correct verse number to the scenerio.